1. INTRODUCTION

[DRAFT STATEMENT FROM THE CHAIR]

Councillor Rosemary Powell (Chair: October 2021- July 2022)

Gurdev Singh (Chair: July 2022 – present)

2. OFSTED INSPECTION REPORTS – SEPTEMBER 2021 – AUGUST 2022

Five Ofsted inspection reports were received regarding Rutland schools during the past academic year. These included an inspection of a residential provision carried out under the social care common inspection framework and a Section 8 inspection of Great Casterton Church of England Primary School.

The inspection of The Shires in Oakham, which comprises of two specialist independent schools and one children's home, was undertaken in March 2022 and although the resulting report was 'good' it was disappointing to read that 'there are too few opportunities for pupils to learn about different faiths and cultures, and what it means to live in modern Britain.'

In May 2021 Ofsted published its review on what contributes to a high quality Religious Education curriculum, assessment, pedagogy and systems. This was to be followed in the spring term of 2022, by a report on the quality of Religious Education curriculums taught in schools but to date nothing has been published. However, evidence for this will be gathered through subject 'deep dives' during inspections and we continue to encourage schools to actively review their curriculums.

3. SIAMS REPORTS

All church schools will be additionally inspected under section 48 of the Education Act 2005. These Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools (SIAMS) are not the responsibility of SACRE or the LA and therefore have no requirement to report on them in the Annual Report.

4. RE TEACHERS' NETWORK

6. AGREED SYLLABUS

The current agreed syllabus has run from September 2018 and Rutland SACRE was continuing the process of developing a new Agreed Syllabus which will commence from September 2023. The action plan with timelines and budgets has been developed and added to the development plan.

7. COMPLAINTS ABOUT COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

There were no complaints about Collective Worship made to the Rutland SACRE by parents in the period of this report.

8. APPENDICES

APPENDIX A

i. The Role of SACRE

Background:

The 1988 Education Reform Act confirmed the statutory requirement for all LAs to reform a permanent body for Religious Education – The Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education (SACRE). The Rutland SACRE is an independent body which exists to advise the LA on matters concerned with the provision of Religious Education and Collective Worship.

The world of education has been, and is continuing, to change and successive governments strive to find ways to improve educational outcomes. Over recent years the role of the Local Authority in relation to schools has reduced but SACRE continues to be a statutory body. The Government's stance is that British Values and an understanding of others' cultures and faiths can best be taught through RE. The subject contributes significantly to meeting the Government's Prevent agenda.

SACRE comprises of four groups:

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Group One:   | Representatives of faiths (other than Church of England) and world views |
| Group Two:   | Church of England Representatives  |
| Group Three: | Teacher Associations   |
| Group Four:  | LA Representatives   |

Each group has equal status and voting rights. See Appendix B for membership details.

In Rutland, SACRE is supported by a clerk and a professional officer. The professional officer we have supports both SACRE and The Agreed Syllabus Conference. She is a part-time appointee for Rutland and also supports SACREs in Northamptonshire, Peterborough and Cambridgeshire. Rutland's Head of Learning and Skills also actively supports SACRE.

The broad role of the SACRE is to support the effective provision of Religious Education and Collective Worship in maintained schools / community colleges through:

- Advising the LA on methods of teaching the Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education;
- Advising the LA on the provision of training for teachers;

- Monitoring inspection reports on Religious Education, Collective Worship and SMSC development of pupils;
- Considering complaints about the provision and delivery of Religious Education and Collective Worship referred to SACRE by the LA;
- Obtaining support from the LA to review its Locally Agreed Syllabus;
- Contributing to community cohesion.

The Rutland SACRE meets at least four times each academic year and this has usually been at Rutland County Council's Catmose building reflecting SACRE's position as a committee of the Council. However, due to the ongoing pandemic, the four meetings held during the academic year 2021-2022 were all held virtually.

All of the SACRE meetings are open to the public who may attend as observers and minutes are published on Rutland County Council's website.

ii. Religious Education

There is a legislative requirement that a Local Authority should undertake a review of its locally Agreed Syllabus every 5 years. This Agreed Syllabus was last under review during 2017/18. English Martyrs Catholic Voluntary Academy follows 'Come and See', the RE syllabus for schools within the Nottingham Roman Catholic Diocese.

iii. Collective Worship

Rutland primary schools all have whole school collective worship but it is far more difficult for secondary schools to have whole school collective worship because of the demands of timetabling large numbers of young people and the space that is required for all young people in a secondary school to meet together. It does happen but more frequent collective worship takes place in smaller groups such as Year Group or House Assembly.

In addition to collective worship, faith schools also offer the opportunity for morning/end of day/lunchtime prayer. Pupils in these schools regularly recite the Lord's Prayer and children themselves write and lead prayers. Church of England schools use the Bible to support worship and pupils also have opportunities to worship in church.

In secondary schools in Rutland there is an emphasis on Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Education and British Values.
