Anti Social Behaviour

- Anti-social behaviour is defined as 'conduct by an individual or group that has caused or is likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to any person'.
- Anti-social behaviour includes, but is not restricted to any of the following: Rowdy or inconsiderate behaviour, Neighbour disputes (not all cases), Littering, Dog fouling, Noise, Graffiti
- We have Anti-Social Behaviour Officers who are able to provide advice and support to tackle the alleged issues. They work with partners including the Police to find solutions to local issues.
